

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Fatwās and Muftīs	3
Muslims under Non-Muslim Rule	6
Notes on These Translations	16
1. The End of Muslim Spain	19
Al-Wansharīsī on the Leader of the Muslims of Christian Marbella	21
Al-Ramlī on the Muslims of Christian Spain	31
2. Rulers Who Falsely Claim to Be Muslims	35
Ibn Taymiyya on the Town of Mārdīn under the Mongols	35
‘Uthmān Ibn Fūdī and Hausaland	39
Interpretations of Ibn Fūdī in the Age of British Imperialism in Hausaland	47
3. India	51
Fatwās in Favor of British Rule	58
Karamat ‘Alī: British India Is the Abode of Islam	63
Sayyid Ahmad Khan: On the Ambiguous Status of India	80
The 1920 Hijrat to Afghanistan	83
The End of Calls for Migration from India	88
4. The French in North Africa	91
Muḥammad b. Aḥmad ‘Illaysh on the Muslims of French Algeria	95

Fatwās for the French	98
Fatwās for the French in Mauritania	104
5. The Birth of Minority Jurisprudence (Fiqh al-aqalliyyāt)	113
Rashīd Riḍā: Must Muslims Leave Austro-Hungarian Bosnia?	117
6. Minority Jurisprudence (Fiqh al-aqalliyyāt) in the Twentieth Century	129
Against Minority Jurisprudence – The Views of Saʿīd Ramaḍān al-Būṭī	145
Appendix: Israel/Palestine	149
Suggestions for Further Reading in English on Muslims under Non-Muslim Rule	157